

Comptroller of the Currency
Administrator of National Banks

US Department of the Treasury

Biographies

Timothy W. Long
Senior Deputy Comptroller for
Mid-Size/Community Bank Supervision

Timothy Long was appointed senior deputy comptroller for Mid-Size/Community Bank Supervision at the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) and officially assumed his new position as head of supervision in May 2002.

Mr. Long is responsible for the OCC's Mid-Size/Community Bank program, supervising more than 1,900 banks, federal branches and agencies and 1,500 employees. He serves as a member of the OCC's Executive Committee and the Committee on Bank Supervision.

Previously, Mr. Long served as deputy comptroller for Large Bank Supervision. Prior to that, he held field positions in the Western and Southwestern Districts. He was also a member of the Multinational Banking Division and served as examiner-in-charge of NationsBank, Wells Fargo Bank, and First Interstate Bank.

A native of Malta, Montana, Mr. Long began his career with the OCC's Great Falls sub-regional office in 1979. He attended the University of Montana, graduating in 1978 with a degree in business administration.

